Product description

Get ready for this beautiful sparkling crystal. Satisfyer Sparkling Crystal is a plug with an elegant design made of solid borosilicate glass that will give you pleasure. new and exciting sensations. Enjoy games at hot or cold temperatures: this magnificent glass dildo will make you happy. May your eyes shine.

With the Satisfyer Crystals range, made from solid, shatterproof borosilicate glass, you will experience sensual stimulation on a new level, all without vibrations.
Satisfyer Sparkling Crystal offers a considerable length of 21 cm and is easy to insert thanks to its conical shape.

The wide base guarantees the security you need for your solo sessions. Two sides for complete pleasure: The soft texture on one side provides a pleasant sensation of flexibility, while the grooves arranged in concentric circles on the other side provide additional stimulation. The soft material of this glass butt plug is slippery and gentle on your skin.

Borosilicate glass also has numerous properties that make it perfect for sexual pleasure devices. Despite its durability, it is a very light material that offers a pleasant sensation when holding it. It is also particularly resistant to most external influences, including high or low temperatures.

Thanks to its material, you can easily use Satisfyer Sparkling Crystal for games with hot and cold temperatures. You just have to place the glass dildo in hot water or in the refrigerator for a few minutes and experience how exciting the heat or cold is on and inside your body. After use, you can easily clean this pretty butt plug with water and some mild soap or sex device cleaner. So it can rest shiny on your shelf, waiting for you to take it on your next adventure.
