Galactic stimulation

Star Force 1 invites you to explore a galaxy of pleasure. On one end, the S-shaped stainless-steel dildo offers a wide, smooth shaft that specifically targets the G-spot. The other end features a spherical structure that creates waves of pleasure and rhythmic intensity that increases with every movement.

You won’t need to apply much pressure—the impressive weight of this dildo delivers deep, intense stimulation on its own. Start gently and increase the intensity as your desire grows.

Enjoy hot (and cold) temperature play

Crafted from body-safe, high-quality stainless steel, Star Force 1 has a satisfying weight that provides powerful sensations with minimal effort—gravity does the work for you. Its ultra-smooth, non-porous surface is not only hygienic and easy to clean, but also perfect for temperature play: cool the dildo in the fridge for a tingling thrill, or warm it in hot water for a relaxing, soothing experience. This is cosmic stimulation—perfect for taking your pleasure beyond the stars.
