Infinite pleasure with the Satisfyer Twirling Pro+

The top of the toy acts as a pressure wave vibrator and pampers your clitoris with sensual pressure waves in 11 preset intensities. The oval tip at the lower end of the narrow shaft is ideal for targeted stimulation of the whole body: use the circulating stimulation tip to stimulate all erogenous zones, such as the pleasure beads, the nipples or the anus. You have 12 vibration programs available for it, ranging from soft to intense.

The straight shape of the shaft fits well in the hand during use. The silky, skin-friendly silicone of the vibrator is particularly flexible and glides smoothly over the body. Thanks to its waterproof finish (IPX7), the Twirling Pro Connect app is also a happy companion in the shower or bath. Let yourself be pampered from all sides by this lover.

There's even more: The versatile vibrator is compatible with the award-winning Satisfyer Connect app and is therefore available for even more personal moments. Create your own vibration patterns or let it dance on your body to music through Spotify. For even more exciting moments, you can simply leave control of the toy to your partner via the app. Get ready for stormy moments with this off-roader!
