Product description

DISCOVER DAPHNE

Introducing Daphne, SILEXD's new realistic masturbator ass, designed to offer you an unmatched experience of pleasure. Daphne is made with the innovative SILEXPAN? technology, which combines a hard inner core with a high-quality, extra-soft LIQUID SILICONE skin. This product is completely phthalate-free, latex-free and hypoallergenic, ensuring a safe and comfortable experience.

The patented SILEXPAN? material provides superior flexibility, creating an extremely realistic feel that will surprise you. Every detail of Daphne has been meticulously designed to replicate the sensation of human contact, offering an authentic and deeply satisfying interaction. The combination of a firm core and a soft surface ensures a natural response to every touch and movement, elevating your intimate moments to new heights.

In addition, Daphne is thermoactive, allowing you to customize the experience according to your preferences. Heat it for a softer, smoother feel, or cool it for a firmer texture. This unique feature adds an additional dimension of realism and versatility, adapting to your desires and providing a variety of pleasurable sensations.

Daphne is not only a high-quality product, but also a pleasure tool designed to maximize your satisfaction. Its construction with high-quality LIQUID SILICONE ensures durability and comfort with each use, while its filling with SILEXPAN? offers incomparable flexibility and realism.

Immerse yourself in an experience of authentic pleasure with Daphne, SILEXD's realistic masturbator ass. Discover how the combination of advanced technology and meticulous design can transform your intimate moments into unforgettable adventures. Adjust the temperature according to your desire and experience the difference with Daphne, where each use is an opportunity to reach a new level of satisfaction.
