Product description

Discover authentic pleasure with the Silexd Model 2, a realistic penis that combines a natural appearance, exceptional touch, and powerful vibrating stimulation. Designed for those seeking intensity, realism, and comfort in their most intimate moments.

Made with high-end materials like Silexpan and medical-grade silicone, this dildo offers a velvety exterior and a firm core that mimics the feel of the human body, ensuring a deeply realistic experience.

It features 10 vibration modes for personalized stimulation and is easily controlled via a wireless remote control for uninterrupted play. Thanks to its built-in USB-rechargeable battery, you'll enjoy up to 180 minutes of pleasure on a single charge. Plus, its quiet motor and IPX4 water resistance make it ideal for discreet use in a variety of environments.

In a vibrant pink color, it is completely body-safe: phthalate-free, hypoallergenic, odorless, and non-porous.
