Aesthetically, it has been designed with the appearance of a stylish product, avoiding the visual imitation of any sexual organ.

TENGA 3D MODULE SCULPTED ECSTASY, is the innovative male masturbator , which has revolutionized pleasure toys for men.

With details inside that can only maintain the purpose of giving pleasure and a new " TURN IT TURN-WASH IT-LET IT DRY " system, it converts the internal details into external details, giving the toy a unique design. In an instant, the change in appearance is visible, the fusion of stimulating textures with structural beauty make this toy ideal for the search for the peak of pleasure through masturbation.
Structurally, the combination of materials and ergonomically complex shapes make TENGA the most innovative masturbator on the market.

The POLYGON model is made up of multiple randomly erected triangles, which embellish its surface. Discover the difference of this toy through the new stimuli that you will discover hidden within the sliding polygonal faces and the unexpected peaks, for a transcendental experience that you have never felt before...
