TENGA comes from Japan and is exactly what you imagine: absolutely strange! They are undoubtedly leaders in design-quality ratio and are the favorite toys of men who value discretion. TENGA products look like eggs or packages of men's cosmetic products: modern, discreet and, above all, effective! Don't be fooled by the design, though: the inside of the TENGA masturbator is made of an exceptionally soft material that just touching it sends shivers down your spine and other things to get you up. This is a series of masturbators that are manufactured with the pleasure of modern and contemporary men in mind. They recreate the sensation of vaginal, oral, anal sex and other naughty erotic practices that live in male fantasies. With each passing year, TENGA offers something new and even crazier than the last, so men around the world get the variety they need.
