Product description

Uniq Free condoms with a specially designed base are made for greater protection while still enjoying natural-feel intercourse. Made from latex-free material, condoms fit perfectly for anyone with latex allergies.

Free protective ring on the base eases and speeds up the placement, isolates the external genital areas, and prevents pregnancy as well as the spread of sexually transmitted diseases.

Hypoallergenic, transparent and odorless condoms smoothly adhere to the skin for maximum comfort and pleasure. If you need some extra moisture – condoms are fully compatible with all other types of lubricants.
