Product description

Delay Caps is a food supplement of the XPOWER brand, based on plant extracts and natural ingredients.

Delay Caps helps to last longer and stay in the moment, for a greater sexual pleasure. Asparagus racemosus delays premature ejaculation and Tribulus increases the testosterone level. Moreover, ginseng and Rhodiola will help to reduce emotional stress. The combination of these different natural ingredients is ideal for improving sexual relations.

Delay Caps by Labophyto were developed for men who are dissatisfied with the length of their sexual relations and want to better control their premature ejaculations

Highlights:

- Asparagus racemosus helps to delay premature ejaculation and the erection lasts longer.
- Rhodiola decreases symptoms related to stress, often responsible for premature ejaculation.
- Tribulus helps to increase testosterone levels.
- Ginseng restores emotional balance.
